Third Grade Shield Projects

The third grade classes have just finished reading Black Ships Before Troy by Rosemary Sutcliff, a retelling of The Iliad, and studying the time of the Trojan War. To wrap up this literature and history unit, the students were tasked with creating a shield that would represent them during this ancient time. It is always amazing to see how each student interprets the assignment. Their creativity is a beautiful thing!
